THOMAS LAKIN INSTITUTE FOR MENTORED LEADERSHIP

October 15 - 20, 2023

The Lakin Institute is a national professional growth program that offers a personal and professional growth experience for community college senior leaders with the capacity and interest to advance to the College CEO role, who have shown a capability for broader leadership roles in community colleges' existing or future responsibilities. Participants will engage in interactive workshops to provide practical experience from national thought leaders from a Black perspective.

Applications will open in February 2023. For more information and updates, visit theprt.org/lakin-institute or contact Dr. Kimberly Beatty at kimberly.beatty@mckck.edu

MEN OF COLOR STUDENT LEADERSHIP INSTITUTE

October 19 - 22, 2023

The Men of Color Student Leadership Institute (MOCSLI) partners with today's leaders to inspire, motivate, and encourage future leaders to achieve excellence and grow professionally. MOCSLI will connect participants (students and advisors) to some dynamic speakers, and provides an opportunities for participants to engage in a variety of workshops, group discussions, forums, and social events.

Applications will open in February 2023. For more information and updates, visit theprt.org/programs/men-of-color-student-leadership-institute or contact Dr. Quintin Bullock at qbullock@ccac.edu

NCBAA LEADERSHIP DEVELOPMENT INSTITUTE

In keeping with the mission of NCBAA, the 20th annual LDI Institute prepares African Americans working in community colleges for the next level in leadership. NCBAA is committed to delivering an exemplary program with the emphasis on success and retention in leadership roles. As a result, the institute brings together national leaders to assist and provide opportunities for continued professional development as well as personal growth.

Applications will open in February 2023. For more information contact Dr. Tammy Robinson, President, Mesa Community College and NCBAA President at tammy.robinson@mesacc.edu
